

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Program outcomes and course outcomes for specific programmes

Department of Law

Programme: LLB

PO No.	Programme Outcomes
PO1	Comprehensive Legal Knowledge: Graduates will have an in-depth understanding of the principles and concepts of law, including constitutional, criminal, civil, corporate, and international law, enabling them to analyze legal issues critically.
PO2	Analytical and Problem-Solving Skills: The course will develop strong analytical and logical reasoning abilities, empowering graduates to identify, assess, and solve complex legal problems effectively.
PO3	Legal Research Proficiency: Students will gain the skills needed to conduct thorough legal research using various tools and methodologies, preparing them for the practice of law or academic pursuits.
PO4	Effective Communication: Graduates will be able to present arguments clearly and concisely in both oral and written forms, with the ability to engage with clients, peers, and the judiciary effectively.
PO5	Ethical Practice and Professional Responsibility: The program will instill a deep understanding of professional ethics and the duties of a legal practitioner, ensuring that graduates adhere to the highest standards of integrity and ethical conduct in their practice.
PO6	Advocacy and Courtroom Skills: Students will develop practical courtroom skills through moot courts, internships, and simulated trials, enabling them to represent clients effectively in legal proceedings.
PO7	Understanding of Social and Legal Issues: Graduates will be sensitized to the social, political, and economic contexts in which laws are applied and will be able to address issues of justice, equality, and human rights.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

PO8	Ability to Work in Multidisciplinary Environments: The course will prepare students to collaborate with professionals from other disciplines, facilitating a holistic approach to problem-solving in areas like environmental law, technology, and corporate governance.
PO9	Leadership and Teamwork: The program will encourage the development of leadership and teamwork skills through group projects, seminars, and collaborative exercises, enabling graduates to work effectively in teams.
PO10	Adaptability to Evolving Legal Landscapes: Graduates will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to adapt to new laws, legal reforms, and the ever-changing global legal environment.
PO11	Client Counselling and Negotiation Skills: The course will provide hands-on experience in client interaction, counseling, and negotiation techniques, preparing students for real-world legal practice.
PO12	Commitment to Lifelong Learning: The program will instill an appreciation for continuous professional development, ensuring that graduates are committed to staying updated with legal advancements and enhancing their knowledge and skills throughout their careers.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

PSO No.	Programme Specific Outcomes
PSO1	Advanced Legal Expertise and Practice-Ready Skills: Graduates will develop specialized legal knowledge and practical skills that prepare them for immediate entry into legal practice. This includes proficiency in case analysis, legal drafting, and courtroom advocacy, enabling them to handle litigation and advisory roles effectively in both public and private sectors.
PSO2	Critical Legal Analysis and Ethical Application: The program will cultivate graduates who can critically analyze complex legal scenarios and apply the law with a strong sense of ethics and professionalism. This outcome ensures that students are capable of navigating the legal landscape with integrity, upholding justice, and contributing to the development of equitable legal practices.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW -101	Law of Contract – I	CO 1	Students will be able to explain the essential elements of a contract and describe how these elements contribute to a valid, enforceable contract.
			CO 2	Students will be able to apply principles of contract formation to assess whether a given agreement constitutes a valid contract under legal standards.
			CO 3	Students will be able to evaluate the validity of contracts in complex scenarios and assess potential defenses against contract enforcement, such as misrepresentation, duress, undue influence, and mistake.
			CO 4	Students will be able to draft basic contract clauses and construct legally sound contracts

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW 102	Family Law – I	CO 1	Students will be able to describe the fundamental concepts and principles of Family Law, including marriage, divorce, maintenance, guardianship, and adoption under various personal laws in India.
			CO 2	Students will be able to explain the legal provisions related to marriage, divorce, and maintenance under different personal laws, and compare how these issues are addressed in Hindu, Muslim, Christian, and secular laws in India.
			CO 3	Students will be able to apply relevant provisions from statutes like the Hindu Marriage Act, Muslim Personal Law, and the Special Marriage Act to resolve hypothetical legal disputes involving issues of marriage, divorce, or guardianship.
			CO 4	Students will be able to critically analyze landmark judicial decisions in Family Law, evaluating how courts have interpreted and applied laws related to marriage, divorce, maintenance, and child custody in specific cases

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW 103	Law of Crimes	CO 1	Students will be able to identify and describe essential elements of crimes, including mens rea (intent), actus reus (action), and key definitions related to various offenses under the Indian Penal Code.
			CO 2	Students will be able to explain the classifications of crimes (e.g., cognizable vs. non-cognizable, bailable vs. non-bailable) and illustrate how different criminal offenses are distinguished based on legal definitions and case law.
			CO 3	Students will be able to apply the legal principles of the Indian Penal Code to hypothetical situations, determining appropriate charges and defenses based on facts provided.
			CO 4	Students will be able to critically analyze landmark judgments and legislative provisions, assessing how interpretations of criminal laws have evolved and the impact on justice delivery in India.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW 104	Constitutional Law - I	CO 1	Students will explain the core concepts and principles of constitutional law, including the separation of powers, federalism, and the rule of law.
			CO 2	Students will apply constitutional provisions to hypothetical legal situations and real- world cases.
			CO 3	Students will analyze and critically assess landmark cases, constitutional amendments, and the relationships between different branches of government.
			CO 4	Students will evaluate constitutional doctrines, judicial rulings, and amendments in term of their effectiveness, fairness, and relevance.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW 105	Women and Law	CO 1	Students will be able to recall and outline the major laws and constitutional provisions related to the rights and protections of women in India, such as the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, and Articles 14, 15, and 21 of the Constitution.
			CO 2	Students will be able to explain the significance and scope of key laws pertaining to women's rights, such as the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, and analyze how these laws contribute to gender equality.
			CO 3	Students will be able to apply legal principles related to women's rights to real or hypothetical scenarios, such as identifying legal remedies for domestic violence, workplace harassment, or discrimination cases.
			CO 4	Students will be able to critically evaluate the effectiveness of existing legal frameworks and reforms aimed at protecting women's rights, discussing their strengths, limitations, and potential areas for improvement.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM I	LW 106	Criminology and Penology	CO 1	Demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental theories of criminology and penology and explain the sociological, psychological, and legal perspectives on crime and punishment.
			CO 2	Analyze and compare different models of criminal justice systems, and evaluate the effectiveness of various penal approaches in reducing crime rates.
			CO 3	Critically evaluates the impact of modern criminal justice policies on society, including their ethical implications and effects on different communities.
			CO 4	Develop and propose strategies or policies aimed at reforming current criminal justice practices to make them more humane and effective in preventing crime.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM II	LW 201	Family Law – II	CO 1	Demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental theories of criminology and penology and explain the sociological, psychological, and legal perspectives on crime and punishment.
			CO 2	Analyze and compare different models of criminal justice systems, and evaluate the effectiveness of various penal approaches in reducing crime rates.
			CO 3	Critically evaluate the impact of modern criminal justice policies on society, including their ethical implications and effects on different communities.
			CO 4	Develop and propose strategies or policies aimed at reforming current criminal justice practices to make them more humane and effective in preventing crime.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

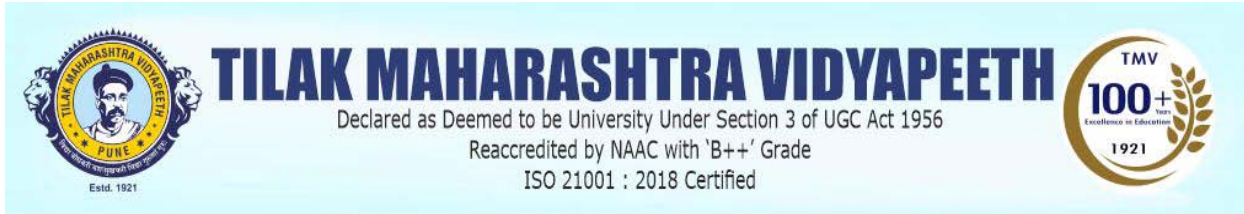

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM II	LW 202	Law of Contract – II	CO 1	Explain the essential elements and legal principles of special contracts such as contracts of indemnity, guarantee, bailment, pledge, and agency.
			CO 2	Apply the provisions of special contracts to real-world case studies and hypothetical scenarios to demonstrate a practical understanding of contractual obligations and rights.
			CO 3	Analyze and distinguish between different types of special contracts, identifying their unique characteristics, similarities, and differences in legal applications.
			CO 4	Evaluate the rights and duties of parties involved in special contracts and provide legal advice or solutions for resolving disputes related to indemnity, guarantee, bailment, and agency.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM II	LW 203	Constitutional Law – II	CO 1	Describe the principles of federalism, separation of powers, and the functions of various constitutional bodies in India, such as the Parliament, President, and Judiciary.
			CO 2	Apply constitutional provisions and case law to practical legal scenarios to illustrate the role of the Constitution in resolving conflicts between different branches of government and protecting citizens' rights.
			CO 3	Analyze landmark Supreme Court judgments to evaluate the balance between fundamental rights and directive principles, and assess their impact on the socio-political fabric of India.
			CO 4	Critically assess the effectiveness of constitutional amendments and propose reforms aimed at enhancing democratic governance and protecting individual rights within the constitutional framework.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM II	LW 18-204	Labour Laws	CO 1	Explain the fundamental concepts and objectives of key labour laws, such as the Industrial Disputes Act, Minimum Wages Act, and the Factories Act, focusing on their role in protecting workers' rights.
			CO 2	Apply the provisions of labour laws to practical scenarios to demonstrate compliance and protection of rights for employees and employers in industrial and corporate settings.
			CO 3	Analyze and compare the effectiveness of different labour laws in promoting fair treatment and safety standards in the workplace, and identify areas of conflict or overlap in legislation.
			CO 4	Evaluate the impact of existing labour law frameworks on worker welfare and business operations, and recommend legal reforms or strategies to enhance the balance between worker rights and economic growth

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM II	LW 206	Media and Law	CO 1	Describe the relationship between media and the law, including key regulations, freedom of the press, and the legal boundaries within which media operates in a democratic society.
			CO 2	Apply relevant legal provisions and precedents to real-world cases to illustrate how laws regulate media practices, including issues related to defamation, privacy, and censorship.
			CO 3	Analyze the impact of media laws on journalistic freedom and public access to information, and critique the balance between protecting national interests and ensuring the right to free expression.
			CO 4	Assess current media regulations and propose reforms or policy changes that address modern challenges such as digital media ethics, fake news, and the regulation of Social media platforms

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW - 18-301	Property Laws including Transfer of property Act, 1882 and Easement Act, 1882	CO 1	Explain the fundamental principles of property law, focusing on the transfer of property, rights, obligations, and the creation and termination of easements as laid out in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, and the Easement Act, 1882.
			CO 2	Apply the legal provisions of property law to hypothetical and real-life scenarios, demonstrating the processes involved in the valid transfer of property and the enforcement of easement rights.
			CO 3	Analyze and compare different types of property transfers, such as sale, mortgage, lease, and gift, as well as distinguish between dominant and servient tenements in easements, to understand their legal implications.
			CO 4	Critically evaluate existing property law frameworks and case law to assess their effectiveness in modern real estate and property disputes, and propose legal solutions or reforms to address current challenges in property law.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW 302	Legal Language	CO 1	Explain and identify the fundamental aspects of legal language, including terminology, syntax, and the use of Latin maxims, and their importance in legal documentation and communication.
			CO 2	Apply legal language skills to draft basic legal documents, such as contracts, affidavits, and legal notices, using appropriate legal vocabulary and structure.
			CO 3	Analyze and interpret complex legal texts and judgments to extract key information, assess their meaning, and summarize them in clear, concise language.
			CO 4	Evaluate the clarity and precision of legal documents or arguments, and refine them to enhance their effectiveness in communication and adherence to legal standards

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW 303	Human Rights and International Law	CO 1	On successful completion of the course students will be able to:
			CO 2	Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the international human rights framework, its origins and justifying theories;
			CO 3	Demonstrate capacity to assess how specific human rights may be asserted enforced or violated
			CO 4	Critically evaluates the relationship between international and domestic law on human rights; of the role of lawyers in human rights protection.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW 304	Arbitration, Conciliation and Alternative Disputes Resolution Systems	CO 1	Describe the fundamental principles, types, and processes of arbitration, conciliation, and other ADR mechanisms, including their legal frameworks and significance in dispute resolution
			CO 2	Apply the procedures and strategies of arbitration and conciliation to resolve disputes through practical case studies, demonstrating an understanding of ADR practices.
			CO 3	Analyze the advantages and limitations of ADR methods compared to traditional court litigation, and compare their effectiveness in various types of disputes.
			CO 4	Evaluate current ADR practices and legal provisions to assess their impact on the legal system, and propose improvements or strategies to enhance the efficiency and accessibility of ADR mechanisms

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW 306	Cyber Law	CO 1	Explain the fundamental principles of cyber law, including legal provisions related to cybercrimes, data protection, intellectual property rights in the digital space, and the Information Technology Act, 2000.
			CO 2	Apply relevant cyber law regulations and precedents to analyze real-life scenarios involving cybercrimes, online contracts, and data breaches to illustrate compliance and enforcement measures.
			CO 3	Analyze the impact of cyber law on individuals, businesses, and governments, assessing challenges such as jurisdiction, privacy rights, and the balance between freedom of expression and regulation
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of current cyber law frameworks in addressing contemporary digital issues, and propose legislative or policy recommendations to enhance cyber security and protect user rights.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM III	LW 307	Cooperative Laws	CO 1	Explain the basic concepts, principles, and historical development of cooperative laws, including the legal framework governing cooperative societies in India and their role in promoting economic and social welfare.
			CO 2	Apply the provisions of cooperative law to real-life scenarios involving the formation, registration, and management of cooperative societies, illustrating compliance with legal norms.
			CO 3	Analyze the operational challenges and benefits of cooperative societies by evaluating case studies and comparing cooperative laws with other forms of organizational regulations.
			CO 4	Critically evaluate the effectiveness of existing cooperative law frameworks in promoting sustainable development and inclusivity, and recommend policy changes or reforms to address contemporary challenges in the cooperative sector

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM IV	LW 401	Jurisprudence	CO 1	Describe and explain the fundamental concepts, theories, and schools of jurisprudence, including natural law, legal positivism, and sociological jurisprudence, to understand the philosophical foundations of legal systems.
			CO 2	Apply jurisprudential theories to analyze real-world legal issues and case laws, demonstrating how different schools of thought influence legal interpretation and judicial decision-making.
			CO 3	Analyze the strengths and limitations of various jurisprudential perspectives and critique their relevance and application in contemporary legal practices and societal challenges.
			CO 4	Evaluate the role of jurisprudence in shaping modern law and propose how specific theories could contribute to the development and reform of legal systems to address current and emerging issues

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM IV	LW 402	Law of Tort including Motor Vehicle Accident & Consumer Protection Laws	CO 1	Explain the fundamental principles of tort law, including the elements of negligence, strict liability, and nuisance, along with the provisions under the Motor Vehicle Accident Laws and Consumer Protection Laws.
			CO 2	Apply the legal concepts of torts, motor vehicle accident claims, and consumer protection laws to resolve hypothetical cases involving negligence, compensation claims, and consumer rights violations.
			CO 3	Analyze and compare different types of tortious acts and motor vehicle accident claims, examining their legal implications and the remedies available under the law, as well as comparing consumer protection laws in different jurisdictions.
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of current tort and consumer protection laws in safeguarding public welfare and propose reforms or legal strategies to address emerging challenges in motor vehicle accidents and consumer rights protection.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM IV	LW 403	Interpretation of Statutes	CO 1	Explain the fundamental principles and methods of statutory interpretation, including the role of the judiciary, legislative intent, and common interpretative rules such as the literal, golden, and purposive rules.
			CO 2	Apply the principles of statutory interpretation to real-life legal texts and case laws, demonstrating how different interpretation techniques affect the outcome of legal disputes.
			CO 3	Analyze judicial decisions to evaluate how courts have applied various rules of interpretation, and compare their approach to statutory interpretation in different legal systems.
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of different approaches to statutory interpretation in achieving justice and legislative intent, and recommend reforms or improvements to interpretation practices in light of contemporary legal challenges.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM IV	LW 404	Principles of Taxation Law	CO 1	Describe the basic concepts and principles of taxation law, including different types of taxes, tax structures, and the legal framework governing taxation in the country.
			CO 2	Apply the principles of taxation to solve practical problems, including calculating tax liabilities for individuals and businesses, and applying tax exemptions, deductions, and rebates under relevant tax laws.
			CO 3	Analyze the impact of various taxation policies on economic and social welfare, interpreting case laws and tax rulings to understand the practical implications of tax law.
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of existing tax laws in achieving fiscal policy objectives and propose reforms to improve the fairness, efficiency, and effectiveness of the taxation system.

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM IV	LW-18-405	Company Law	CO 1	Describe the basic concepts and principles of taxation law, including different types of taxes, tax structures, and the legal framework governing taxation in the country.
			CO 2	Apply the principles of taxation to solve practical problems, including calculating tax liabilities for individuals and businesses, and applying tax exemptions, deductions, and rebates under relevant tax laws.
			CO 3	Analyze the impact of various taxation policies on economic and social welfare, interpreting case laws and tax rulings to understand the practical implications of tax law.
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of existing tax laws in achieving fiscal policy objectives and propose reforms to improve the fairness, efficiency, and effectiveness of the taxation system.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW 501	The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and the Limitation Act, 1963	CO 1	Describe the key provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (CPC) and the Limitation Act, 1963, including the process of filing a civil suit, the jurisdiction of courts, and the principles of limitation applicable to civil proceedings.
			CO 2	Apply the provisions of the CPC and the Limitation Act to hypothetical case scenarios, demonstrating the ability to determine the appropriate procedural steps and time limits for civil claims and actions.
			CO 3	Analyze civil cases to identify the procedural errors, assess the impact of limitation periods on claims, and interpret how various sections of the CPC and the Limitation Act are applied in different legal contexts.
			CO 4	Evaluate the effectiveness of the Code of Civil Procedure and the Limitation Act in ensuring justice and procedural efficiency, and recommend reforms or strategies to improve the efficiency and accessibility of civil justice systems.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW 18-502	Law of Evidence	CO 1	Describe the fundamental principles of evidence law, including the types of evidence (oral, documentary, circumstantial), the rules of admissibility, and the roles of witnesses in legal proceedings.
			CO 2	Apply the rules of evidence to practical scenarios by analyzing case studies, demonstrating how to determine the admissibility of different types of evidence in civil and criminal cases.
			CO 3	Analyze the relevance and reliability of evidence presented in real or hypothetical legal cases, evaluating the impact of evidentiary issues on case outcomes and judicial decisions.
			CO 4	Assess the effectiveness of existing evidence laws in promoting fair trials and justice, and recommend reforms or strategies to address challenges such as technological advancements in evidence

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW 503	Administrative Law	CO 1	Describe the fundamental principles of administrative law, including the scope of administrative powers, the relationship between administrative agencies and the judiciary, and the mechanisms of public accountability
			CO 2	Apply the concepts of administrative law to real-world case studies, demonstrating an understanding of how administrative actions, such as rule-making, adjudication, and enforcement, affect the rights of individuals and organizations
			CO 3	Analyze judicial reviews of administrative decisions, evaluating the balance between administrative discretion and individual rights, and assess the effectiveness of remedies available against wrongful administrative actions.
			CO 4	Critically assess the strengths and limitations of existing administrative law frameworks in promoting transparency, accountability, and fairness in public administration, and propose reforms to improve the functioning of administrative bodies.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW – 18 -504	Drafting, Pleading and Conveyancing	CO 1	Explain the fundamental principles and rules governing the drafting of legal documents, pleadings, and conveyancing instruments, including the key components, formats, and legal requirements for each.
			CO 2	Apply the techniques of drafting and pleading to create accurate legal documents, such as complaints, written statements, petitions, and contracts, demonstrating attention to legal detail and proper legal language.
			CO 3	Analyze various types of legal documents, pleadings, and conveyances to identify potential errors, inconsistencies, or legal shortcomings, and evaluate their effectiveness in achieving the desired legal outcomes.
			CO 4	Draft complex legal documents and conveyancing agreements tailored to specific legal situations, and propose modifications or improvements to enhance clarity, enforceability, and legal precision.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW 505	Intellectual Property Rights	CO 1	Describe the basic concepts and types of intellectual property rights (IPR), including patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets, and explain their legal significance and protection mechanisms under national and international law.
			CO 2	Apply IPR laws to real-world scenarios, demonstrating how to protect intellectual property through registration, licensing, and enforcement, and illustrating the processes involved in patenting, trademark registration, and copyright claims.
			CO 3	Analyze case studies of intellectual property disputes, evaluating how IPR laws are applied in resolving conflicts, and assess the impact of IPR on innovation, economic growth, and the public interest.
			CO 4	Critically evaluate current intellectual property laws and practices in light of technological advancements, and recommend legal reforms or strategies to address emerging challenges such as digital piracy, software protection, and the global enforcement of IPR. Teaching Hrs distribution per Unit/ Marks weightage per chapter

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM V	LW 506	Banking Laws	CO 1	Apply the provisions of banking laws to real-life case studies, demonstrating how legal principles govern banking transactions, consumer protection in banking, and the enforcement of contracts between banks and their clients.
			CO 2	Analyze the impact of banking regulations on the financial system, identifying legal challenges faced by banks, consumers, and regulators, and evaluate the effectiveness of laws such as the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, and the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002.
			CO 3	Apply the provisions of banking laws to real-life case studies, demonstrating how legal principles govern banking transactions, consumer protection in banking, and the enforcement of contracts between banks and their clients.
			CO 4	Critically assess the current banking laws in promoting transparency, efficiency, and consumer protection in the banking sector, and propose legal reforms to address emerging issues like digital banking, financial inclusion, and cyber security risks.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM VI	LW 601	The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, Juvenile Justice Act, 2000 and Probation of Offenders Act, 1958	CO 1	Describe the key provisions of The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (CrPC), The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000, and the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, explaining their roles in the criminal justice system, including procedures for investigation, trial, sentencing, and rehabilitation.
			CO 2	Apply the procedural rules of the CrPC in real-world case scenarios, demonstrating CO2- how to file complaints, conduct trials, issue warrants, and enforce judgments, while also applying provisions of the Juvenile Justice Act and Probation of Offenders Act in relevant cases.
			CO 3	Analyze the impact of the Juvenile Justice Act and the Probation of Offenders Act on criminal justice and rehabilitation, evaluating their effectiveness in addressing the needs of juveniles and offenders, and compare these laws to traditional criminal procedures under the CrPC.
			CO 4	Critically assess the current application and challenges in the enforcement of the CrPC, Juvenile Justice Act, and Probation of Offenders Act, proposing legal reforms to improve rehabilitation efforts for juveniles and offenders and enhance procedural fairness and justice.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM VI	LW 602	Environmental Law	CO 1	Explain the key concepts and principles of environmental law, including the legal frameworks, statutes, and regulations designed to protect natural resources, prevent pollution, and promote sustainable development.
			CO 2	Apply environmental law provisions to real-world scenarios, demonstrating how environmental regulations are enforced in cases of pollution control, conservation, and biodiversity protection, and how these laws affect industries and individuals.
			CO 3	Analyze case studies of environmental disputes to evaluate the effectiveness of current environmental laws and policies, and assess the role of public interest litigation in environmental protection.
			CO 4	Critically evaluate the existing environmental legal framework in light of emerging global challenges, such as climate change and resource depletion, and propose legal reforms to strengthen environmental protection and promote sustainability.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM VI	LW /18-603	Professional Ethics, Bar Bench Relations and Accountancy for Lawyers	CO 1	Explain the foundational principles of professional ethics for lawyers, the dynamics of bar-bench relations, and the significance of maintaining integrity and accountability in legal practice, including ethical obligations toward clients, courts, and society.
			CO 2	Apply the principles of professional ethics and accountancy to real-world legal Scenarios, illustrating the correct handling of client funds, preparation of legal accounts, and adherence to ethical conduct in professional settings.
			CO 3	Analyze case studies involving ethical dilemmas or disputes between the bar and the bench, evaluating the roles of professional conduct rules and judicial ethics in resolving conflicts and ensuring justice.
			CO 4	Critically evaluate the existing framework of professional ethics and bar-bench relations, and propose reforms or strategies to address emerging challenges, such as the impact of technology on legal ethics and the promotion of mutual respect between the judiciary and legal professionals.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM VI	LW 604	Land Laws	CO 1	Explain the key provisions and principles of land laws, including land acquisition, revenue laws, tenancy laws, and land reforms, along with the legal frameworks governing land rights and ownership in India.
			CO 2	Apply the principles of land laws to real-world scenarios, such as resolving disputes related to land ownership, tenancy, or acquisition, and interpreting the legal implications of land-related documents and contracts.
			CO 3	Analyze case studies and legal decisions related to land laws, evaluating the impact of land policies and reforms on individuals, communities, and economic development.
			CO 4	Critically assess the existing land laws and policies, and propose legal and policy reforms to address contemporary issues such as land acquisition, urbanization, land grabbing, and equitable distribution of land resources.

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH

Declared as Deemed to be University Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

Reaccredited by NAAC with 'B++' Grade

ISO 21001 : 2018 Certified

Programme: LLB

Semester	Course Code	Course	CO No.	Course Outcomes
SEM VI	LW 605	Practical Training and Moot Courts	CO 1	Explain the foundational principles of court procedures, legal drafting, and advocacy skills, highlighting the importance of research, argumentation, and courtroom etiquette in legal practice.
			CO 2	Apply theoretical legal knowledge to practical scenarios by drafting pleadings, preparing legal arguments, and conducting mock trials or moot court sessions that simulate real-life legal proceedings.
			CO 3	Analyze complex legal problems presented in moot court cases, evaluate different legal strategies, and assess the effectiveness of arguments and counterarguments in achieving favorable outcomes.
			CO 4	Critically assess the quality of legal presentations and teamwork in moot courts, and propose innovative legal arguments or solutions to address challenging and emerging legal issues.