ABOUT THE VIDYAPEETH

As per the direction given by Mahatma Gandhi during the Indian National Congress Session held at Nagpur in 1920, Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth was established in 1921 as an educational memorial of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, who was known as "The Father of the Indian Unrest" and an advocate of "National Education". In the later phase, the Vidyapeeth was awarded with 'Deemed University' status by Government of India in 1987 in recognition of its significant contribution in the field of education. During the last 29 years, the Vidyapeeth has achieved tremendous progress through quantitative and qualitative improvement on various academic fronts. The Vidyapeeth is committed to maximize the knowledge and skills of students through its academic courses. Recently, the Vidyapeeth has been accredited by NAAC with 'B' grade in its second cycle of accreditation.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The post-graduate department of economics is offering M.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. Courses with an inter-disciplinary approach. The UGC curriculum has been accepted by the department and has designed competitive syllabus for various courses.
