Let say No to it

It encourages exploitation and encourages non-resistant acceptance. It is also believed that ragging helps in breaking the ice between the seniors and juniors.

Dear all

Today, we stand before you to address a matter that is of utmost importance in our academic institutions: ragging. Ragging, in any form, is not just a tradition or a harmless prank; it is a serious violation of human dignity and a threat to the mental and physical well-being of students.

Ragging can take many forms - from seemingly innocent teasing to outright harassment and abuse. It has far-reaching consequences, often leading to psychological trauma, depression, and in extreme cases, even suicide. No student should ever have to endure such torment in the name of initiation or fun.

As members of this academic community, it is our collective responsibility to stand against ragging in all its forms. We must create an environment where every individual feels safe, respected, and valued. We must foster a culture of inclusivity and empathy, where differences are celebrated rather than ridiculed.

To achieve this, we need to raise awareness about the negative consequences of ragging and empower students to speak up against it. It is imperative that we promote anti-ragging policies and ensure strict enforcement of disciplinary measures against those who engage in such behaviour.

Let us pledge today to stand united against ragging and to create a campus environment where every student can thrive without fear. Together, we can build a brighter future for our academic institutions, free from the shadow of ragging.

Thank you.
